RETURNS

Package your return with the Return Slip below, securely attach the Return Shipping Label to the outside, and drop it off at any UPS location within two weeks. Where allowed by your company's return policy, Tyndale accepts returns of unwashed, unworn garments within 60 days of shipment. Credit will be automatically processed when your return is scanned at our distribution center. You will receive an email confirming your return.

If you requested an exchange item, your replacement order will be released for processing when your return is scanned in at our distribution center – look for your return confirmation, followed by order and shipping confirmations for your exchange order.
